Dear Friend,

Welcome to SacredSounds Fall/Advent/Christmas 2025! As I have become familiar with these newest musical offerings, I am in awe to think, musicians have been writing, arranging, and presenting new songs for hundreds of years with fresh creativity and expression. How is that possible? What keeps it from growing old and mundane? The answer for me is found in the book of Lamentations where we read that God's love and mercy never fail us. They are new every morning. With this being so, no wonder we approach this season's unchanging story of salvation with new enthusiasm through our worship and praise. "Joy to the World" perhaps captures it best when it invites us to "repeat the sounding joy!" I am convinced that within this collection of inspired works, there is something for everyone. Enjoy exploring these wonderful new resources as well as our best-selling proven winners with the belief that you will find the perfect musical selections to enhance the season ahead. May your song and your inspiration be new every morning!

Musically yours,

THE INN CROWD (Lee Dengler and Susan Naus Dengler)

The infamous census of the ages has made Bethlehem a busy and crowded spot, and there are some guests at a local inn who aren't very happy. F. W. Woolworth (a rich wool salesman), and Rock Starling (a hip star singer), among others, have made it clear they want no part of the "lower class" staying at the inn (or otherwise). By the end of this 20-minute, easy-to-prepare and present musical, we learn that Jesus came for everyone, and that because of Him, we're all included in God's Kingdom. For grades K-6.
